产品/机械

AGC offers the broadest product line in the flat-glass industry — supporting residential, commercial, specialty and automotive glass markets. AGC offers clear and tinted flat-glass products, patterned glass, energy-efficient coated glass, tempered and laminated products, insulating window units, and specialty products such as touch-panel and solar glass.

A leader in product innovation, AGC has designed and assembled an array of advanced products to address recent market demands for low emissivity, increased solar control, a greater variety of hurricane- and blast-resistant products, continuous glazings and enhanced visibility for fire-rated products, and low-iron and heavy-patterned options for interior-design applications.
