A high level of quality suited to glass bottles
Japan's largest 4-point stick pre-tack labels

Heat-sensitive pre-tack labels make use of the transparency of glass bottles to ensure that products appear vibrant and clear. Transparent film allows for the same sense of impact as directly printed glass, but at a lower cost. Pre-tack labels also offer excellent hot and cold water resistance, eliminating worries of labels peeling off unexpectedly.

ACL (Direct Printing)

Direct printing creates high-end style
Excellent for returnable bottles

Screen printing bottles adds a strong sense of authenticity and luxury to a product. In the past, ACL printing techniques were common for milk and other returnable beverage bottles. In recent years, however, ACL printing has also increased for alcoholic beverage and other one-way bottles
