产品/机械

The modular system for the roof, flat roof and open space area is variable in the application.
With the patented click technology, highly pre-cut and free components, we guarantee the best flexibility and quick installation times for our frame.

The height-adjustable module and end clamps are used for clamping range 30 mm - 50 mm.

The components are made of aluminum and stainless steel. The high corrosion resistance provides maximum durability and the possibility of full recovery.
