Owens Corning FOAMGLAS®

In 2017, Owens Corning acquired Pittsburgh Corning whom manufacture a wide range of FOAMGLAS® cellular glass insulation products. With applications in both the construction and industrial sectors, FOAMGLAS® insulation products fit seamlessly into the existing Owens Corning's activities around the world.

Pittsburgh Corning produces – FOAMGLAS® cellular glass; an insulation material with exceptional properties. FOAMGLAS® insulation is durable, lightweight, and provides excellent protection against heat and cold. It's non-flammable, totally unaffected by water and water vapour, which are the biggest threats to insulation materials.
